

EFP 10: Classmate Interview

The purpose of this interview is for you to learn more about one of your classmates and to write a piece that introduces this person in an engaging and informative way.

Try to add some description. Don't just say someone plays sports, but also describe what sport he or she plays, what team etc.

Guidelines:

Here are the expectations for the assignment:

1. Should be a minimum of 5 sentences (7-10 would be better).
2. Use transition words in between your sentences. (Also, as well, in addition, etc.)

Checklist:

- Introductory sentence (2 marks)
- At least 3 sentences that describe details about your partner. (6 marks)
- A concluding sentence that summarizes your main idea in an interesting way (2 marks)
- Spelling and sentence structure (2 marks)
- Transition words: (2 marks)

Total: 14 marks

Examples of transition words:

also, furthermore, in addition, as well, moreover, additionally, while, on the other hand, alternatively, in contrast

Words for concluding: to conclude, in conclusion, finally, lastly, in the end